TO END NEXT MONDAY.

Authorities Anxious For Parents of Children to Pay Visits to School Next Year.

Commencing this morning the annual examinations in the public schools of Alexandria will be held daily, preparatory to closing next Monday, June 16. This week marks the closing of the present scholastic year.

A meting of the school committee composed of H. Kirk, Clifton Howard, and W. S. Nicklin, will be held at the Lee school tonight, which will be attended by the Superintendent of Schools, W. H. Sweenye, and Conrad Johnson, principal of Lee High School. The committe at this meting will make final arrangements for the closing of the schools and arrange for the final exercises of Alexandria High School, which it is expected will be held Monday evening, June 16th.

There will be five days of examinations for the high school pupils and four days for the primary schools. Examinations for the grammar grades commence tomorrow and slose Friday.

Promotion cards for the grammar grades will be distributed next Monday by Harry Kirk, clerk of the school board.

The exact number of graduates of the Lee High School is not yet definitely known, but it is expected there will be eight graduates this year, which is three more than was announced in the Gazettee some time ago.

Three medals are to be awarded high school graduates this year. The Blanton Latin Medal will be given by Stanley G. Blanton.

The History Medal will be given by T. H. Ficklin, principal of the Washington School, and the medal on English by Miss Pearl L. Hoffman, teacher in the High School.

The schedule for the week in the High School will be as follows:

Monday, June 9th 4th year mathematics; 3rd year science; 2nd year English; 1st year history.

Tuesday, June 10, 4th year Latin; 3rd year Latin; 2nd year history, 1st year English.

Friday, June 13th. 7th grade English; 6th grade, history; 5th grade, arithmetic.

The examinations at the Washington Schools also begin tomorrow. The schedule not yet having been made up will be published later.

W. H. Sweeney, superintendent of the city's public schools hopes to see a much larger number of perents visiting the public schools next year during school sessions. He will nedeavor to bring about a greater interest in the mothers' association and among parents, and asks to have as many mothers of school children as possible to take an active part in the association and intends to encourage them to mee oftener during school year, at least once a month.

A large number of parents never realize the great amount of encouragement their ocasional visitts to the school rooms gives the children. The pupils take a great pride in their work as a rule, and to see their elders at the school during sessions tends to stimulate them in their studies and urges them to excel in their work.

It is hoped that the fathers will next year organize a school patrons' association to meet at least once a months and discuss questions of interest in the development of the school work. The teachers will be glad to co-operate in organizing such an association, which would vie in supporting the schools with material for study that the city does not supply and perhaps occasionally make arrangements for moving picture exhibitions, showing pictures of educational value to the children, an exhibition which parents would also greatly enjoy.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Emily Wilding Davison, the first martyr to the militant efforts of women to obtain the suffrage, died today at the Epsom Hospital, London, as the result of a fracture of the skull sustained in an attempt to stop the king's horse Amner during the running of the derby on Wednesday last.

A mass meeting of an organization known as the Anti-American Youth's Association of Tokyo yesterday was sparsely attended. Bellicose speeches were made, but the orators were of no prominence, being for the most part agitators attached to the opposition parties. The speeches were mostly devoted to attacks on the ministry, and a resolution, which was adopted, urged immediate war against the United States.

After Locky Casto, aged 40, of South Ruffner, W. Va., had twice shot and seriously wounded his wife during a quarrel, yesterday, he was himself killed by William E. Harrison, aged 21, a stepson. Mrs. Casto is expected to recover, and her son immediately released on bond.

According to local authorities, Berkley Flemming, aged 20, a farmer, confessed in Ironton, Ohio, last night to the murder of his mother, Mrs. Emma Flemming, aged 55, Saturday, and his brother Culberton, aged 25, July 14, 1910, at Coryville, 1 mile north of Ironton. Following the confession, Flemming was taken to his home in an automobile. Near the house he pointed out the spot where he said he had buried his mother. The police found her body under 18 inches of dirt. The back part of her head had been blown away with a gun. Flemming then took the officers to a nearby tobacco field on the farm and showed where he had buried a skeleton, the skull of which had been broken, was found. Flemming told the police that he also shot his brother.

A wireless dispatch was received in New York early yesterday morning saying the Cuban steamship Olinda was on fire in her No. 1 hold, which was being flooded. The dispatch added that the Olinda was making for the nearest port, but did not give her position. The Olinda sailed from New York last Friday with passengers and merchandise.

A stirring sermon in St. John's Baptist Church (colored), Fifth and W streets northwest, Washington, came to an abrupt end last night when a squad of policemen, headed by Health Officer Woodward and Deputy Health Officer Fowler, pounced down upon the congregation and vaccinated more than sixty of the worshipers. Windows were thrown open and the "brothers" and "sisters" who were more athletic than the others disappeared.

Felled by a bolt of lightning, John Jacobs, of Grand Forks, N. Dak., a peddler, was covered with a sheet and the coroner called to make disposition of the remains. Three hours later, when the coroner entered the room in which the supposed dead man had been laid away, he found the sheet thrown into a corner, and a few minutes later the peddler was seen driving down the road, as good as ever. The bolt struck a tree near where the man was driving.

DEATH OF GENERAL LEE'S WAR SCOUT

Rev. Frank Stringfellow Passes Away at Home of His Daughter.

A GALLANT SOLDIER.

Widow a Daughter of the Late James Green, of Alexandria—Survived by Six Children.

Rev Frank Stringfellow died at the home of his daughter, Mrs R. W. Patton, near Gordonville, yesterday. The deceased was 72 years old. He is surived by a widow, daughter of the late James Green, of Alexandria, and si xchildren—Messrs. M. S. Stringfellow, John S. Stringfellow, Frank Stringfellow, Jr., Mrs. R. W. Patton, Mrs. R .W. Shultice and Mrs. W. A. Barr. The funeral will take place from W. Demaine & Son's Chapel to morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. Interment will be in Ivy Hill cemetery.

Rev. Frank Stringfellow was a familiar figure in Alexandria, where he had many friends and acquaintances. He was a native of Culpeper county, and during the war between the states was a member of Colonel John S. Mosby's command. Later he became a captain and was detailed by General Lee for scout service, and was engaged in a number of important enterprises. His services in this capacity gave him considerable notoriety.

After the war he became a minister of the Protestant Episcopal Church and was at times in charge of churches in different sections of the state. He had recently been stationed in the Green Spring section of Prince William County.

CORPORATION COURT.

Grand Jury Empaneled to Consider Criminal Cases And Persons Who Have Not Paid Licenses.

The Corporation Court for this city, Judge Louis C. Barley, presiding, convened this morning. The June term is always an important one, as the regular grand jury is empaneled for consideration of the criminal cases pending. There were three felony cases to be presented to the grand jury which was summoned on Friday last.

In addition to considering the felony cases the grand jury looked into the matter of non-payment of license. It appears that an unusually large number of merchants have been lax in this regard this year, and it has been necessary to resort to this measure to enforce payment. Few indictments are expected, for the delinquents have had a week since notice of the grand jury's session was given and many have paid the license taxes over due. A number of important civil suits are expected to come up for trial at this term.

The grand jury returned the following:

Com. vs. James Johnson, colored, malicious assault. True bill.

Albert Steward, colored, malicious assault. True bill.

Edward Thompkins, colored, petit larceny, third offense. True bill.

Johnson plead guilty and was sentenced to serve two years in the penitentiary. Steward and Thompkins also plead guilty and were each sentenced to serve one year. They will be placed on the roads.

Presentments were returned against several Alexandrians who have failed to pay their license taxes. The Commonwealth's Attorney will give the delinquents a few days in which to settle with the state. Should they fail to do so within the given time action will be taken against each.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wilson, of Roanoke, are visiting Mrs. James A. Hulfish, on north Washington street. Mr. Wilson recently purchased one of the new residences recently erected by the Alexandria Construction Co., and intends to occupy the same with his family in the near future.

SENIOR CLASS NUMBER.

"Maroon And White", High School Magazine, Finishes First Year.

The "Maroon and White," is a magazine devoted to the interests of the Alexandria High School. It is composed entirely by the pupils of the school, and is edited to develop school spirit.

This is the first year of its publication, and the magazine has done a great deal for the school, making people take more interest in the high school, and adding color to the school life of its pupils. Seven numbers have been issued this year, the last one being the commencement number which has just been issued. It is devoted to the senior class, as their graduation number. Herman Pohl, the editor-in-chief, writes an editorial called "A Last Word," in which in behalf of the whole class, thanks the rest of the school for help given the seniors in managing the magazine. Thomas Jones writes the class history of the seniors from the time they left Colonel Ficklin's room, in Washington School, to the present time, when they are about to leave High School, with the future open be for them. "Vates," Miss Agnes Plaskett, of the third year, is the author of the story "A Glimpse Into the Future," in which is shown, the occupation each senior will be found in twenty-five years from now. Hirst Hayes, the poet of the school composes a poem to the seniors entitled "To Our Senior Class," and the "Hall of Fame," shows the different accomplishments of each senior, and in what esteem they are held by the rest of the class.

UNSEASONABLE WEATHER.

Sudden Drop in the Temperature Saturday Night Brings Out Overcoats.

There was considerable humidity in the atmosphere Saturday, while the mercury was hovering about the ninety degree mark. Conditions continued sultry until late in the night when the temperature took a sudden tumble, and by yesterday morning meteorological conditions were suggestive of March.

The mean temperature for the day was 63 degree. The lowest temperature was 57 degrees early yesterday morning and the highest temperature 69 degrees.

Conditions have been cool today witha northeasterly wind.

Generally fair weather, with moderately low temperature in the Eastern States, the Great Central Valleys an dthe Lake Region and local rains along the South Atlantic and Gulf Coasts are predicted for the early days of the week by the Weather Bureau. For the section west of the Missisippi Valley generally fair weather and temperatures above the seasonal average are promised for the entire week.

No important storm will cross the country the coming week, but a disturbance that is now forming over the Western Plateau region will advance slowly eastward, preceded by a general rise in temperature and attended by local thunder showers and cross the Middle West about Thursday and the Eastern States near the end of the week. A general reaction to normal temperatures will set in over the Great Central Valley and the Eastern States after Tuesday.

BATHERS ROBBED.

Watch and Money Taker From Bathers Swimming in River.

J. B. Henderson, Clarence Metzger, and Leonard Ford, three youths, concluded to take a swim yesterday morning from one of the wnarves in the extreme northeastern section of the city. One had a watch and another had a small sum of money, and the time piece and money were tied in a garment belonging to one of the trio. When they came out of the water they found the money and watch missing, and a man named George Harris, who had been nearby acting suspiciously, was believed to be the thief. Officer Garvey arrested the suspect and found the watch and money in his possession. Harris, who said he was from New York, was brought before the police court this morning and sent to jail for sixty days.

The thugs then went upstairs, broke open the cash drawer and took the contents $62.22. The only clue to the identity of the men is the description furnished by Mrs. Halsey.

AFTER ARMOR PLATE PLANT.

Chamber of Commerce Will Urge Government to Place it Here.

The regular monthly meeting of the Alexandria Chamber of Commerce to be held tonight in the rooms of the chamber will be most important to Alexandria from an industrial standpoint, if the work contemplated is consummated. One of the important matters for the attention of the members will be the question of urging the claims of Alexandria as the best location for the armor plate plant, the government purposes establish, which project has been advanced by Senator Ashurst, of Arizona, who has a bill before Congress for the erection of such a plant by the government.

At a called meeting of the business promotion and industrial committee of the Chamber of Commerce last week it was decided to refer the armor plant proposition to a special committee which was to be appointed at the regular meeting of the chamber tonight.

The industrial committee also instructed the secretary, J. T. Preston, to prepare and forward a letter detailing the claims of Alexandria for the location of the proposed armor plant in this city and urging the Virginia Senators and Representatives to do all in their power to induce congress to consider Alexandria as the logical site for this plant should Senator Ashurst's bill be passed.

This letter was mailed to Senators Swanson and Martin and to the Virginia Representatives in Congress. Mr. Preston in his communication set forth the advantages of this city as a location for the plant.

Alexandria has several available sites for this plant, one of which, Jones' Point, claimed by the government, contains about forty acres of filled land. It would make an ideal location. We have here the skilled labor, the best railroad facilities, and the ground so situated with respect to Indian Head, the government's armor plate proving grounds, that Jones' Point would make a most convenient and accessible location. The site is close to Washington, the headquarters of the navy, and is well protected in the event of war.

At the meeting tonight a special committee will probably be appointed by President Pierce of the chamber, which will at once take proper steps to bring the claims of this city to the attention of those who are interested in the establishment of this plant.

NEGRO ASSAILANT IS HANGED TODAY

Nat Green, Who Attacked Washington Woman . . . Expiates Crime.

BLAMES DOPE AND GIN

Professes Sorrow For His Act—Lost Nerve Yesterday and Wept Convulsively For Nearly an Hour.

Washington, June 9.—Nathaniel Green, colored, expiated on the gallows today in the United States jail a crime committed on Christmas eve last, which shocked all Washington.

He is the second man to have been hanged in the District for the same crime, assault upon a woman.

Just before his death, and before he had been led into the death chamber, Green made a statement.

"I am sorry, for what I did," he said tremblingly. Gin and dope are what made me forgot myself. I hope this will be a lesson to other members of my race."

Green had nearly lost his nerve in the last twenty-four hours, but he walked steadily enough to the scaffold this morning and stood without shrinking while the noose was placed around his neck and the black cap draw nover his head.

Yesterday he broke down during the music which formed a part of the religious service of the day and cried convulsively for nearly an hour

Green marched down the long corridor with his eyes fixed on the gallows on the farther end, a priest, Rev. Michael Gallagher, walking beside him. The condemned man repeated prayers over the long walk. Two guards walked immediately beside the prisoner having hold of either of his arms. These had been bound behind him and above his elbows. Handcuffs had been placed on his wrists.

Green was on the gallows exactly forty seconds before the trap was sprung. He reached the head of the gallows stairs at 10:04 o'clock, and at 10:04:40 the trap was sprung. In the forty seconds a strap had been buckled around his ankles, another around his neck, and a black cap placed over his face.

Although he was given a six and a half foot drop, the fall did not break his neck, and death was caused by strangulation.

SATURDAY'S GAME.

Cardinals Win From Bloomer Girl's By Score of 6 to 0.

The largest attendance of the season was out at the local park Saturday afternoon to see the Star Bloomer Girls go to defeat at the hands of the Cardinals by the score of 6 to 0. The game itself was interesting considering that the Bloomer Girls were handicapped by heavy field and ball.

Risdon, who started to twirl for the Cardinals, was practically invincible, two hits were made off his delivery, and was widely scattered, he was relieved in the sixth by Nugent who allowed three hits and gave two balls in the three innings. Only one Star Bloomer Girl reached third base during the entire game. Rose, who was on the mound for the females pitched clever ball for four innings having four strikes-out to her credit and issuing three free passes, she was relieved in the fifth by Miller, who proved to be easy meat, the heavy hitting Cardinals landing on his delivery. Rose, who went to centerfield, saved him by her brilliant fielding, while Miss May, on third, and Selma, on first, proved themselves to be good bal lplayers.

SERVICES AT ARLINGTON.

Alexandrians Witness Impressive Ceremonies and Listen to Orations Yesterday

The weather yesterday morning was indicative of rain, and the many people of this city who had purposed to visit Arlington had reason to believe the ceremonies in honor of the Confederate dead would be interferred with materially, but later the sun shone and by the time the special train left this city at 2 o'clock conditions were favorable and a cool breeze rendered the trip still more enjoyable.

The special which ran through to Arlington without change was well patronized as were those which followed later, and by four o'clock, the hour fixed for the ceremonies a fair representation of Alexandrians was present.

They returned later in the evening much pleased with what they heard and saw.

Claude A. Swanson, United States Senator from Virginia, in his address declared that if the South "could have had access to the sea, the Confederacy would have succeeded. A nation that is cut off from the sea is practically cut off from the world. It was the North's naval power that destroyed the Confederacy."

Defending the attitude of the South Senator Swanson said: "I am not one of those who has an apology to make for its past, and we need no defense. The South fought for the sovereignty of the state against unwarranted aggression of the national government."

The speaker said that the national government many years afterward not only recognized the right of a state to secede, but even arranged for the revolt and the succession of Panama from Columbia, and recognized the new state as the sovereign government. That the civil war was the greatest war in all times in the history of the world, and that Alexander the Great, Caesar, Napoleon the Great, and other celebrated generals cannot compete in any shape or form with the leaders of war of the Confederacy, was the claim advanced by Senator Swanson who said the famous round robin which was sent from Cuba to the War Department by a well known colonel complaining about food, clothing and other accommodations and necessities, was like a pigamy, compared with the dangers, deprivations, and sacrifices made by the Confederate soldiers during the memorable years in the '60's.

Hileary Herbert, chairman of the Arlington monument committee, read a statement on the fund and on the progress of the work on the statue now being made in Rome, Italy, by Sir Moses Ezekiel, former Confederate soldier. Mr. Herbert expressed the hope that the monument would be ready by next fall, and that the unveiling ceremonies would take place at that time. There are on hand $23,730, and Mr. Herbert said that he hoped that before long he would be able to report the full amount necessary for the erection of the memorial. A petition has been submitted by him to Congress, asking that the monument be permitted to be brought in tariff free.

LICENSE LAW IN STATU QUO

No Apparent Change in Deadlock Concerning Tax on Liquor Dealers

The report which was started last Saturday to the effect that an agreemen was about to be reached between a majority of the members of the Board of Aldermen and a majority of the members of the Common Council concerning the tax upon all dealers in liquor could not be verified today as neither Mr. Marbury nor Mr. Brumback had anything new to add to the situation. If any understanding is about to be reached the matter is being kept secret, according to those in positions to know.

The regular semi-monthly meeting of the City Council will be held tomorrow night at which time, it is to be supposed, efforts will again be made to get the two boards together.

The new license law was supposed have gone into effect on the first instant. It is generally passed by both boards of Council, approved by the Mayor, and published officially before the first of June.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION.

BROTHERS HELD FOR MURDER.

Charged With Being Principals or Accessories in Killing of Sister's Husband.

Staunton, Va., June 9.—Early on the morning of June 2, 1911, the body of Edward Miller, a young cooper, was found lying beside the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway track within the city limits. He had been mortally wounded in the night. There was a hole in the forehead as if he had been struck with a blunt instrument. The coroner said he had been assaulted, but the police department seemed to discredit this belief. Miller was not quiet dead, but died shortly after reaching the hospital.

Within a year of his death he married Miss Ella Greaver,, whose brothres are also coopers. One of these brothers, Lee Greaver, has been in jail for some time, charged with housebreaking, and Friday night the other three, Harry, Edward, and William, were arrested, and all will be charged with the murder, or as accessory. Except that there was known to be some ill-feeling between Miller and his wife's brothers, the public knows nothing as yet of the case against the Greavers, as the police department has not yet shown its hand.

The general public and some members of the police force have always believed Miller was murdered because of the character of the wound, and the manner in which he was lying when found. A sensation is expected to develop.

NORMAL TRAINING SCHOOL.

Episcopal Board of Religious Education Introduces Innovation.

Roanoke, Va., June 9.—A normal training school for Sunday school workers, probably the first of its kind ever known in Virginia, will be held in this city four days, beginning July 7th, and closing July 11th.

The school will be held under the auspices of the General Board of Religious Education of the Episcopal Church, and is similar to the normal schools held for public school teachers. Educators, it is argued, realize the necessity of these schools in the work of teaching the youth in secular matters and as religion is vastly more important, the necessity for some training of this knid is consequently more needed.

The territory covered by this gathering includes the states of Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland, Pennsylvania and the District of Columbia, and is known as the Third Department of the Board. The man, in charge of this work and who will preside at the sessions of the school here, is the Rev. Stuart Mittman, Ph. D., field secretary of the Third Department. He recently gave up a responsible position at Lehigh university and residence in South Bethelhem, to take charge of this religious educational work. Dr. Mittman will have with him ten expert teachers who will compose the faculty of the school.

While the work is under the supervision of the Episcopalian Church, other denominations are invited to participate.

Seven-Year-Old Shoots Man.

Suffolk, Va., June 9.—Hiram G. Darden, a prominent young business man of Portsmouth, visiting at the home of Wm. L. Johnson, near Norfolk, was accidentally shot narrowly escaping death, by 7-year-old Herbert Fulgham, yesterday morning. Mr. Darden was asleep on a couch in the Johnson home, when the Fulgham boy came in and found a loaded pistol lying on the table. He pointed it at the sleeping man and fired, the ball sinking in Darden's forehead. He was brought to St. Andrew's Hospital, Suffolk, and the bullet located and extracted.

DESERTED HER BABY.

Leaves One-Month Old Boy With Colored Woman.

Fredericksburg, Va., June 9.—A woman giving her name as Mrs. Phil Carpenter, claiming to be from Madison county, stopped at a boarding-house here a few days ago. She had with her a boy baby about one month old. She took the child to a colored woman and gave her $5, saying she would send her more. The woman then hired a buggy and went to a home in Spotsylvania county, fifteen miles from here. Sergeant J. C. Chichester went to the country place, arrested the woman, brought her back here and placed her and the child at a boarding house until the case can be brought up in court. The woman was before Justice Dannehl Saturday on the charge of desertion, and gave an account of her troubles. She is from Madison county, as stated, and her father would not permit her to return home. She has been a widow for two years, and has two other children with her father. The grandmother had brought these two children to relatives in Spotsylvania county, where their mother was found and arrested.

The name of her father is John Sparks, a prosperus farmer of Madison cunty. Mrs. Carpenter was fined $200, but the fined was suspended if she would promise to provide for her child, which she did. She expects to go to Richmond and wrk in a tobacco factory.

CONVICTED OF BIGAMY.

Pennsylvanian Tried And Found Guilty in Danville Court.

Danville Va., June 9.—J. W. Waddelton, a native of Pennsylvania, was Saturday afternoon sentenced to serve four years in the penitentiary, being conivcted on a charge of bigamy in the Corporation Court. Waddelton, over the fifty-year mark, was arrested here nearly three weeks ago shortly after marrying Mamie Copeland, following the activities of a woman named Martha E. Earts, who came here from Spray, N. C., declaring that Waddleton married her sixteen years ago in North Carolina.

Waddleton denied having been legally married to the woman, but admitted having lived with her for a number of years. His oldest daughter aged thirty-nine years, testified against him. All efforts to secure the wedding license issued in North Carolina, near Goldsboro, proved futile, it being issued nearly twenty years ago, but never returned to the court with the pastor's indorsement.

INDICTED ON THREE CHARGES.

Newport News Citizen Accused of Attempt to Bribery.

Newport News, Va., June 9.—H. B. Walker, candidate of the Democratic nomination for city treasurer in the primary to be held here June 26, was indicted on three charges by a grand jury in the Corporation Court Saturday. One indictment charges that Walker, who is a prominent business man, tried to bribe Detective-Sergeant S .G. Pearson to furnish him with names of witnesses summoned to testify before the grand jury in the investigation of reports that candidates were spending money illegally to get their friends to pay their poll taxes. The indictments are misdemeanors in that they allege that Walker offered money to certain friends to influence other voters in his favor.

Walker recently was acquitted in the United States court in Norfolk in connection with the naval commissary stores graft and bribery cases.

ASSAULTED HIS MOTHER.

Justice Barron Sentences Plummer Warren.

Norfik, June 9.—Plummer Wicks was on Saturday sentenced to five years on the roads by Police Justice Barron on charges of being drunk and beating his sixty-year-old mother Mrs. Maggie Wicks.

Mrs. Wicks, who told Patrolman Petty on Friday that her son had beat her because she failed to give him money to buy whisky, failed to appear in court to prosecute her son Patrolmen Petty and Pargoe were prosecuting witnesses and Justice Barron accepted their testimony.

Woman Mangled by Train.

Roanoke, Va., June 9.—Mrs. Horace O'Brien, a mother of several small children, were literally cut to pieces when she was struck while crossing a railroad bridge with a friend near Pulaski, Va., by the New York Memphis "Special" westbound on the Norfolk and Western Railroad yesterday afternoon.

The train is one of the fastest on the system and came out of a sharp curve onto the bridge before either woman was aware of its proximity Mrs. O'Brien's companion jumped and was injured. With the train only a few feet away Mrs. O'Brien in attempting to jump to safety became demoralized with fright slipped and fell on the track immediately under the pilot of the on-rushing train and was frightfully mangled, her limbs trunk and head being severed.

CANDIDATES AND THEIR PREPARATION.

It is a sad commentary upon the work of our several state legislatures that the press invariably hails their adjournment with glad acclaim and comments upon their sins, usually of omission, in rather caustic fashion. It must be admitted that, too frequently, there is reason for rejoicing and that an adjournment means relief to the people out of whose treasury legislative expenses are paid, and for whose benefit the session has resulted in little good.

For some few years past we agitated the question of a ninety day session of the Virginia legislature in place of the present sixty day term. There is some reason to believe that a longer time in the saddle would operate to advantage, but there is greater reason for belief that much more could be accomplished under the present arrangement, if our state lawmakers frittered away less time in the early days of the session and devoted more attention to the passing of important measures, which lie in committee week after week and are held up for the interminable debate after being released for the consideration of the two bodies.

There has been so much of this sort of thing in the past years that it seems a foreword might be advisable while candidates are making the fight for the primary nomination. One very good reason for delay has been the lack of preparation on the part of the majority of members to deal with the questions which arise. In the coming session there are numerous matters of importance to be considered but the great question, which alone is worthy of receiving the attention of every member during every day of attendance at Richmond is that of a new system of taxation to replace the antiquated scheme which has operated so unfairly during the past, and is freely admitted to be inadequate at the present day.

It is not right for our candidates to await until success has crowned them at the polls before considering this important matter. It is not right to go unprepared to Richmond, to waste weeks of valuable time getting acquainted with the tax question. That time is paid for by the people of Virginia and the man who represents us at the capital should go there ready to deal with the problem.

OBSERVANCE OF FLOWER DAY.

Today has been observed by many organizations as Flower Day. The ninth of June has for several years been looked forward to with interest by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, Flower Day having been instituted by Frances Willard, and it has generally appealed to churches, the members of which on that day send flowers to people who from infirmities or indisposition are unable to leave their homes. These tributes are naturally appreciated as reminders from loving hearts who endeavor to carry out the timely injunction of rejoicing with those who do rejoice and weeping with those who weep.

The Willard Branch of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Alexandria, will observe the day tomorrow morning.

The sending of flowers i sa beautiful custom. The senders are blesed in their work an dthe recipients are cheered by such kindly acts.

They played the black across the board in Washington yesterday. The police ordered the board of health to interrupt the services in a negro church and vaccinate the entire congregation.

Senators Williams and Vardaman are in a fight over Mississippi patronage. Washington must seem very home-like to those two gentlemen.

That lobbyist from Oklahoma ought to be locked up in the national museum as a specimen of a vanished race.

SERVICES AT ARLINGTON.

of Iowa, a veteran of the Union army, spoke of his experiences in the war and created much laughter and amusement when he said he had served four years and a half "and that he never missed a fight or a foot race; a good long run is sometimes better than a bad stand." He spoke of the reunion of the Blue and Gray on the Gettysburg battlefield next month and said he had introduced a bill in congress appropriating $3,500 to carry the old veterans of the Confederacy to Gettysburg on that memorable occasion.

Senator Vardaman of Mississippi entertained the audience with one of his characteristic speeches extolling the virtues of the women and soldiers of the Confederacy, which he said would have been an ideal government had secession been succesful,in that the full sovereignty of the States would have secured recognition.

The unveiling of the Southern cross presented by Camp 305 Sons of Confederate Veterans of the District of Columbia, was performed by Miss Frances Saunders, sponsor, assisted by Miss Berry, maid of honor. The strewing of flowers over the graves was done under the direction of Mrs. George S. Covington, chairman of the flower committee, assisted by the Children of the Confederacy, under Mrs. E. C. R. Humphries. The decorations o fthe tomb of the unknown dead and the decorations of the grave of General Joseph E. Wheeler formed impressive parts of the program.

The musical program was well rendered.

WAR INEVITABLE.

Excitement at Belgrade—Preparations for Conflict.

A Vienna dispatch says: "War is almost inevitable between the Balkan allies, according to a Sofia dispatch to the Neue Freie Presse, which declares that the solution of the cabinet crisis must not be looked for before June 12. The Daneff cabinet is expected to effect a reapproachment with the triple alliance, and meanwhile a meeting of the premiers is extremely doubtful.

Enormous excitement prevails Servia is allowing the passage of no Bulgarian messages. A more drastic 'state of war' is to be observed All houses must close at 9 o'clock at nigh."

The feeling of irritation and alarm is becoming pronounced in Belgrade the belief being that Bulgaria is delaying her reply to the Servian note only to gain time to dispose her troops to the best advantage.

On Saturday the Bulgarians again attempted to occupy Servian territory between Douran and Strumitza

FISHERIES OF CHESAPEAKE.

Market Decline in the Catch of Shad And Herring.

Washington, June 9.— Inquiries conducted by the Bureau of Fisheries, Department of Commerce, show that the present fishing season has been the poorest in many years in most parts of the Chesapeake and the aggregate catch of the principal spring fish, shad and herring, will be much less than in recent years. The effects of the diminished run of fish will be seen from three to five years hence, when the reduced progeny of this season's supply comes back to spawn.

The conditions in the Potomac river which may be taken as typical for all the major streams, are in some respects the worst in 40 years. The upper reaches of the river have been almost barren of fish during the entire season, and nearly all the shad and herring fishermen have failed to meet expenses. At Ferry Landing, the largest seine in the river, 1,200 fathoms long, has discontinued operations in the middle of the season owing to the scarcity of fish. In former years this celebrated fishing shore, with a smaller seine, sometimes yielded 200,000 or more herring at a haul, and up to 10 or 15 years ago probably took 15,000 to 30,000 fish at a haul on an average. Only a few years back from 1,000 to 1,500 shaw were frequently taken at one set of seine. This year the largest haul was 3,000 herring and 100 shad, while many times only 3 to 20 shad were taken.

The shad hatcheries operated by the Bureau on the Potomac have had a very unsuccesful season. Their operations afford a good criterion of the conditon of the fishery in the fresh waters, because the whole field is covered and nearly every ripe fish caught by the fishermen is stripped of its eggs by spawn-takers sent out from the hatcheries. At the shad hatchery on Potomac river the egg collections amounted to 29,988,000, as compared with 88,727,000 in 1912.

The immediate cause of the failure of the shad and herring fisheries this year is the diminished run of spawning fish into Chesapeake Bay from the sea, and the enormous quantity of apparatus among which a very limited catch had to be divided. Inasmuch as the great bulk of the yield is taken in salt water, the remnant that was able to reach the spawning grounds in the streams was insignificant and wholy inadequate to maintain the supply.

The romote cause of the present condition is excessive fishing in former years, and the lack of even the minimum amount of protection that is demanded by regard for the most elementary principles of fishery conservation. Fish entering the Chesapeake Bay have to run through such a maze of nets that the wonder is that any are able to reach their spawning grounds and deposit their eggs. The mouth of almost every important shad and herring stream in the Chesapeake is literally clogged with nets that are set for the special purpose of intercepting every fish; whereas a proper regard for the future welfare of the fisheries and for the needs of the migrating schools would cause the nets to be set so as to insure the escape of a certain proportion of the spawning fish.

Adequate protection of the fishes is compatible with freedom of fishery and with a large and increasing yield. A very slight curtailment of the catch—perhaps as little as 10 per cent. in any given year— may be sufficient to perpetuate the species and result in increased production in a few years. To disregard a requirement so small an dto permit the continuance of an evil so serious invites and encourages the destruction of a most valuable food supply.

State Corporation Commission Grants Petition Presented N. And S. Co.

Richmond, June 9.—The state corporation Commisison has granted the petition of the Norfolk Southern Railway for permisison to increase its local rates on the electric division from Norfolk to Virginia Beach from 25 to 40 cents for the round trip, with the amendment of a unique zone system and the adoption of commutation tickets suggested by the railway officials at a conference which followed the original hearing of the petition.

The new rates go into effect Sunday, June 15th. By the new system the south route of the line is divided into four zones and the north route into four zones and the north route as practicable, and the road is permitted to charge a general passenger rate of five cents for each zone or part of a zone traveled. This gives the through passenger a round trip rate of 40 cents to Virginia Beach and 50 cents to Cape Henry, and the residents living between these points will enjoy proportionate rates.

Trustees and Commissioner's Sale of Residue.

Trustees' sale of the residue of the "Belvoir" or "White House" tract of land located in Mt. Vernon magisterial District Fairfax county Va. containing approximately 1100 acres with improvements.

By virtue of the authority vested in us by the will of Philip Otterback deceased, and under decree of the Circuit Court of Fairfax County, Va., in the suit of Otterback vs. Bohrer, at its March and May terms, 1913, the undersigned trustees and commissioners will offer for sale at public auction in front of the Royal street entrance to the Market House in Alexandria Va., at the above described prpoerty.

This tract, the old home of Lord Fairfax and separated from George Washington's home at Mt. Vernon by Dogue Creek, originally consisted of approximately twenty-seven hundred (2,700) acres, of which 1,500 acres has been taken by the United States Government for a school of Equitation of Horsemanship. The balance, between ten and twelve hundred acres consists of valuable farming lands and about eight hundred (800) acres of valuable timber It has a large deep water frontage on the Potomac river as well as a large frontage on Dogue Creek, with valuable fishing shores. The property is improved by an old mansion house, familiarly known for many years as the "White House," a club house, barns, stables, out-buildings and tenant houses. It is situated on the county road between Mt. Vernon and Accotink, and is about four miles by road from Mt. Vernon. This property is one of the most historic in the section and would make a very desirable country estate because of its location and the opportunities afforded for fishing and shooting.

YOUR HAIR IS TURNING GREY AND IT MAKES YOU LOOK OLD

This is Not the Time When Old Age is to be Desired

TO KEEP POPULAR KEEP YOUR APPEARANCE OF YOUTH

A young man was surprised to have his application for a position "turned down." He was better equipped for the position than the fellow who got it.

He discovered that his grey hairs did it. He was "too old" looking. It's the same everywhere. There is no doubt but that grey hair does make a man look old. There is no use waiting another minute—don't lose your position or fail in getting a better one because you are old looking—use Hay's Hair Health now.

Those who are using Hay's Hair Health recommend it to their friends, because it is genuinely good, always restores grey hair to its natural color; destroys dandruff, keeps the scalp clean and healthy. You begin to note the difference at once. The few grey hairs disappear and never return.

Why look old when you are young? Get a bottle of Hay's Hair Health at once, start using it and see what a difference a few applications make.

WISHED SHE COULD DIE

And Be Free From Her Troubles but Finds Better Way.

Columbia, Tenn.—"Many a time," says Mrs. Jessie Sharp, of this place "I wished I would die and be relieved of my suffering, from womanly troubles I could not get up, without pulling a something to help me, and stayed in bed most of the time. I could not do my housework.

The least amount of work tired me out. My head would swim, and I would tremble for an hour or more. Finally, I took Cardui, the woman's tonic, and am not bothered with pains any more and I don't have to go to bed. In fact I am sound and well of all my troubles."

Cardui goes to all the weak spots and helps to make them strong. It acts with nature—not against her. It is for the tired, nervous, irritable women, who feel as if everything were wrong, and need something to quiet their nerves and strengthen the worn-out system.

If you are a woman, suffering from any of the numerous symptoms of womanly trouble, take Cardui. It will help you. At all druggists.

MISSING WOMAN MARRIED.

Miss Elise Nicholas Married to Prof. Bentley.

Winchester, June 9.—Miss Elise Nicholas, of Lynchburg, Va., whose disappearance in New York last year resulted in a six weeks' search for her throughout the East, was married on Saturday to Prof. Bruce Bentley, instructor in athletics and member of the faculty of the Shenandoah Military Academy, at Winchester. The ceremony took place at the home of young woman's grandmother, Mrs. Adele Warwick, of Keswick, Va.

New York, June 9—Miss Nicholas who has been a student nurse in a hospital at Winchester, disappeared the morning of March 6, 1912, from the home of her uncle, Morrel Calgoun, of 79 west 105th street, this city. The search for her was the subject of interest for several days.

On the night of May 6, 1912, a young woman whom a policeman had found in a stupor, according to his account on the floor of a hallway at 318 West 116th street, was arraigned before Magistrate Herbert in the Harlem Police Court.

She gave her name as Elise Nicholson, but on reading newspaper clippings she had in her hand Magistrate Herbert learned that she was Miss Nicholas, for whom such an extensive search was being made. The clipping was an account of her mysterious disappearance.

Miss Nicholas was paroled in the charge of relatives and went back to Virginia, where she is said to be well connected. She told the magistrate she left her home because of trouble with her father. She explained her disappearance from her uncle's home by saying she had been searching for congenial employment.
